

St. Louis Catholic School 8th Grade Summer Reading

Dear Rising Eighth Grade Students,

Congratulations on making it through another season of walking through a pandemic! Hopefully, the next academic year will provide many new opportunities as well as the return of traditional ones. I hope that your summer is filled with great adventures and new perspectives. For summer reading, choose a book from each list and complete the work/project that goes along with that section.

Make sure you read the YOUNG ADULT versions where noted.

You are welcome to email me if you have any questions.

See you in August!

Sincerely,

Mrs. Melissa Priola

One-Pager Final Project (Examples at the bottom and some were hanging in my classroom at the end of the school year)

A one-pager is an analytical (organized and detailed), creative, and written response to a novel that completely fills one side of a piece of paper. For your one-pager, you'll want to focus on the big ideas from the novel including theme, symbolism, and conflict, as well as literary devices and elements. The examples also show questions on the page, but your project will not have that element.

Required Details

1. Fill the entire page with color and text. There should not be any blank, white space. (a white background against text is okay.)
2. Clearly label each element of your one-pager.
3. Include the title, author, and genre on the paper. You should try to incorporate these elements as creatively as possible.
4. Complete the grid by connecting 3 story elements together (and these 3 will be on the paper as well)

Connect Three boxes vertically, horizontally, or diagonally to select your additional 3 required elements. USE MLA FORMAT TO CITE QUOTATIONS (example below).

NIGHT: A Memoir (told by Elie) Weisel

Quote 1
"The joy in his eyes was gone. He no longer sang. He no longer mentioned God or Kabbalah" (Weisel 7).

This quote is important because it shows how the Nazi actions changed Moishe and all of the Jewish people. This relates to losing faith in God because they've witnessed and experienced.

Quote 2
"The SS made us increase our pace faster, you tramps, you flea ridden dogs!" They had orders to shoot anyone who could not sustain the pace" (Weisel 86).

This quote is important because it shows the significance of the SS and the impact they had on the Jewish prisoners... The concept that best fits this quote would be TORTURE. The SS tortured them in ways unthinkable, such as, Starvation, beatings, hard labor, hangings, etc.

Quote 3
"On God, master of the universe, give me the strength never to do what Rabbi Eliahu's son has done" (Weisel 91).

This quote is important because it shows the concept of family. Elie still continues to hold onto the idea of never being separated from his father. This fits into the story and he doesn't let anything come between him and his dad.

Question 1
Did Elie ever wish to be separated from his father?

A: Elie never wished to be separated from his father but when he was very sick on his death bed Elie was tempted to end it quicker and stop giving his father his rations. This quote explains how, "You could have two rations of bread, two rations of soup... It was only a fraction of a second, but it left me feeling guilty. I ran to get some soup and brought it to my father" (Weisel 111). He quickly shot that idea down and continued to fight for his father's life.

Question 2
Why did Elie not fast on Yom Kippur? How does he feel after?

A: Elie didn't fast on the Jewish Yom Kippur holiday because he lost faith in God and he felt like why should I fast for my God who I feel abandoned by. But all the other prisoners fasted but Elie ate and once he did he felt awful and he said, "And I nibbled on my crust of bread. Deep inside me, I felt a great void opening" (Weisel 69). The feeling Elie got didn't stop himself from turning away from God but Elie defiantly knew it wasn't right.

"Chain Breaker"
—Zach Williams
We've all search for the light of day in the dead of night
We've all found ourselves worn out from the same old fight
We've all run to things we know just ain't right
And there's a better life
There's a better life
If you've got pain
He's a pain taker
If you feel lost
He's a way maker
If you need freedom or saving
He's a prison-shaking savior
If you've got chains
He's a chain breaker

This song strongly relates to the book NIGHT and the journey all the Jewish people were on throughout the holocaust. They had faith that God would break their chains and that freedom would come to them.

Question 3
Did the idea of dying or just ending it ever come to Elie? Why or why not?

No, Elie never wanted to give up and die. He just had his dad to help him not give up. And even when his dad died, Elie is he found something else to not let him give up. Elie is a true survivor and never gave up. His story didn't end early because he had hope he would be liberated... and he was.
